3. SERIES FORMAT, COURSES & SCORING

Updated from NoR - This document will prevail as per NoR section 8.

Series Format

The series will consist of a minimum of six (6) races. No maximum number of races will be set, however no race shall start before 10am or after 6pm except on the final race day, if necessary Wednesday April 1, 2012 when no races shall be started after 2pm, in addition, on the final race day a target number of races for each division will be announced at briefing.

Racing will take place in a timed format over a period of between five (5) to twenty five (25) minutes, after which time competitor are to continue sailing the course until such time as they have crossed the finish line. The timing systems results will be sorted on number of laps (high to low) followed by time taken (low to high) to give a position on line (POL) The competitor who has completed the most laps in the least time will be declared the winner of that race.

Races may not be run in full complete rounds of class and division, and the order of races is at the discretion of the PRO only.

Courses

Up to two courses may be used, ranging in length to give a target of between three (3) and five (5) laps for the leaders during the time period. Courses, where possible will include a windward leg of significant length to provide tactical racing. The course orientation, length and shape is at the sole discretion of the PRO.

Scoring

The ISAF low point score system will be used for scoring the series based on the scratch position as follows, 1st place = 1pt, 2nd place = 2pts, 3rd place = 3 pts and so on.

Ties will be broken by count back of the number of 1st places, with the sailor with the highest number of 1st places being awarded the higher place, if the tie remains, a count back of the number of 2nd places will take place, if the tie is still not broken a count back of the number of 3rd places, 4th places and so on will take place until the tie is resolved. Dropped (omitted) races are NOT included in the count back. If after exhausting all count backs the tie remains un-resolved the result will be broken by the competitor with the best place in the last race.

After race eight (8), a competitor's worst single race result may be dropped (omitted) from the final series tally. A second worst race result may be dropped (omitted) from the final series tally after race fifteen (15) and a third dropped after race twenty two (22). Dropped (omitted) race results may come from any race and are not limited to the block races in which the drop was granted.

ie: after twenty two (22) races, three (3) drops are allocated, these may come from any of the twenty two (22) races.

A competitor may drop any race result including a Disqualification (DSQ), On Course Side (OCS), Did Not Start (DNS), Did Not Finish (DNF) except for a Disqualification due to a breach of IBRA rules as follows:

Any Part B Rule (as required by IBRA rule D3)

Rule E1

Rule E9

All breaches of the above rules shall be referred to the scrutinising committee or protest committee for ruling.
